

NEWS in BRIEF

Master Chemical (01449 726800) is holding a nation-wide series of one-day seminars aimed at highlighting the cost and performance benefits achievable through effective coolant management. The primary objective of the programme is to take participants from fundamental cutting and grinding fluid selections, through a range of issues that impact on machining efficiency and component quality, to waste disposal options and recycling.